Dear Ms. Santos:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA no. 2015-00003), dated 10/08/2014 in which you requested:

Documents identified to GS01P06BWD0053 (clearly releasable ok)(FGI # 44333), related to the Commercial Facility Management Services At The Thomas O'Neill Federal Building In Boston, Contract # GS01P06BWD0053, awarded to Consolidated Engineering Services. Specifically, the following:

1. A copy of the Source Selection Decision Documents;
2. A copy of all past RFPs;
3. A copy of the contract awarded in 2007; and
4. A copy of all the Award Fees & letters.

Enclosed please find a complete copy of the Request for Proposal (RFP) and a copy of the Contract awarded in 2007. We are withholding the source selection decision document under FOIA exemption 3. The third statutory exemption under FOIA permits an agency to withhold material specifically exempted from disclosure by statute 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(3). 41 USC §423(a)(1) protects source selection information. In addition, the awarded contract was a firm fixed price contract with no Award Fee provisions. Consequently, there are no Award Fees or letters.

Furthermore, we withheld physical signatures in accordance with the sixth exemption of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). This is done because public disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

You have the right to appeal. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to the following address:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1C)

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reasons why you believe GSA should have the requested information. Enclose a copy of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."
